

to be reimbursed for my loss and expenses I don't consider unreasonable. as it is a pure loss, which was caused thru benefiting your case, as you know it was absolutely the only thing in the entire proceedings, that really hurt the remarkable story told by states main witness.

Now I took all the chances. and am slighted where ever I go, and accused of accepting Hall money before grand jury sat.

Now if you would make good my loss. I don't think it would make matters a bit worse for you nor any one else could convince the Public to the contrary.

So the amount involved is a dead loss to me, and I miss same in my business constantly. and believe a person in your position can and should attend to this matter at once for you have received your benefits as far as the case has went. so I believe if you intend at all to treat me as you should, it should be done at once.

As I am tired of listening to the public and have to think that actual expenses are
